New Notice from the ISOO replacing several old ones

The Information Security Oversight Office (ISOO) is responsible for overseeing the classified national security information system established by Executive Order 13526 and 32 CFR 2001 (CFR = Code of Federal Regulations). They also issue notices concerning information security. Recently, they issued ISOO Notice 2026-06 to rescind and replace several older ones in order to consolidate and clarify the information in them.

The notices this new one replaces are:

- 2021-01: Rescinding Approval of Pre-1989 General Services Administration (GSA)-Approved Containers (The black label phaseout)
- 2022-03: General Services Administration (GSA) Approved Security Equipment (Extension of phaseout date for black label vault doors)
- 2014-02: Procurement of Security Equipment
- 2012-04: Additional Guidance on Standards for Security Equipment
- 2012-03: Additional Guidance on Supplemental Controls
