COLOR CHANGE FOR THE KABA-MAS X-10

Kaba-Mas is now changing the color of the X-10, including the CDX-10 and DKX-10 locks. Instead of being painted gray, the X-10 series of locks will now be painted black.

This has been planned for some time now. Last October, Kaba-Mas released Product Bulletin #57 announcing the eventual color change. In fact, I heard about it much earlier than that.

You can download the Kaba-Mas Product Bulletin by clicking on one of the links below.
